New Space, New Works

February 18 - March 26, 2011

Opening reception: Friday, February 18, 7-10PM

Gerhard Richter
Aladin (915-2), 2010
Lacquer behind glass 40 x 50 cm

Wako Works of Art is pleased to announce its relocation to the heart of the Roppongi district. The inaugural exhibition will start Friday, February 18, and will include new and recent works by Gerhard Richter, Yuji Takeoka, Fiona Tan, Wolfgang Tillmans, James Welling and Christopher Williams.

After 18 years in the long-endearred hardwood-floor space in Hatsudai, Wako Works of Art will be moving to the thriving hub of business and culture of Tokyo. The new location is a three-minute walk from the Roppongi station on the Hibiya line, and three minutes from the neighboring Mori Art Museum; it will be within the same premises as Ota Fine Arts and Taka Ishii Gallery Photography/Film. The gallery anticipates to use the newly renovated 90-meter square space to its fullest, with works and exhibitions befitting the new location.

Some works that will be shown in New Space, New Works are: new lacquer paintings by Gerhard Richter; Fiona Tan's exquisite 3-meter long photo print Cloud Study I, inspired by her time filming on Inujima in the Setouchi Inland Sea; Wolfgang Tillmans' photo installation; Diary/Landscape photographs by James Welling; and Christopher Williams' photographs of Falke toe sock and camera.

Please join us for a reception at our new location on Friday, February 18, 2011 from 7pm to 10pm.
